5. [redacted] Talked to Fran Christy, House Immigration and Naturalization Subcommittee staff of the Committee on Judiciary, who told me that the Committee has informally organized the Subcommittees and Representative Eilberg (D., Pa.) will be Chairman of Subcommittee No. 1 handling immigration and naturalization matters. We discussed the fact that it would be necessary at an appropriate time to meet with Eilberg to work out procedures for handling Agency sponsored private bills.

7. [redacted] Talked to Miss Susan Tammen, Legislative Assistant to Representative Frank Horton (R., N. Y.), who told me that various bills are being prepared by members of the Government Operations Committee to overcome the effects of the case of Patsy Mink et al versus Environmental Protection Agency concerning exemption of classified information under the Freedom of Information bill. The thrust of the legislative proposals will be to require review of classification and the substance of classified documents by the courts to wipe out, if possible, the present exemption for classified information. John Warner, OGC, has been advised.
